MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Welcome to The 65th Annual New Hampshire Antiques Show. It's hard to believe that we have been going on for this long. We've come a long way from an upstairs room at the Highway Hotel in Concord to the DoubleTree in Manchester. Our dealers have been saving certain items to bring out for the first time at this show. They know what you, our loyal customers, have come to expect and we are all doing our best to not disappoint you.

Thanks go to the workers behind the scene. After the close of our show in 2021, work started on our 2022 show. If it wasn't for Josh Steenburgh and Bev Longacre, our show chairpersons, the show would be difficult to mount. Without their hard work and expertise, the show would not run as smoothly as it does. Sharon Platt and Rebecca Hackler are responsible for the Herculean task of getting our advertising and show information out to the public. Other board members pitch in do their part thanks to Ken Pike and to Peter Sawyer, our Treasurer, who grimaces while writing checks thinking, "This costs how much?" Rich Bojko puts together this program. These folks along with Melissa Alden and Paige Trace make up the rest of the Board of Directors who graciously give their time to put our show together. Oh, I almost forgot Richard Thorner, who keeps his eyes on what is transpiring—making sure it doesn't get us thrown in jail.

We hope you enjoy what we have enjoyed putting together for a great antiquing experience. Not all of our advertisers in this program are exhibitors. If you happen to stop by any of our advertisers, tell them you saw their ad here.

Enjoy the show and your time in New Hampshire.

Thomas M. Thompson, President - New Hampshire Antiques Dealers Association

Find What You've Been Looking For

The only thing that matters is now.

Every Week in print and Every Day online, we bring you more news, more often on antiques, fine art and collectibles.

Since 1963, Antiques and the Arts Weekly has reported on the greatest things ever made. Our reports find these works at their most opportune times: as they fill the spotlight in a museum exhibition or when they change hands at auctions and through dealers around the world.

Our weekly newspaper, distributed both in print and as an E-Edition on our website at www.antiquesandthearts.com, contains essential information for buyers and sellers. Information that helps our readers — collectors, auctioneers, promoters, appraisers and dealers — follow the market and increase their knowledge of who is who and what is what.

Because in a market like this, knowledge is everything.
