NHADA Code of Ethics

1. Accurately describe inventory and shop hours in my directory listing.
2. Price any merchandise on display in my shop or show booth.
3. Identify reproductions and non-antique items and maintain no more than 10% of total inventory in these classifications.
4. Provide buyers with a full description of all purchases including date, origin, restoration, repainting, refinishing, or damage. Include any provenance available.
5. Warrant that all items sold are as described based on the member's best judgment, and that an item will be accepted for a full refund if shown on good authority to be other than as described.
6. This membership is non-transferrable.

I agree to follow the NHADA Code of Ethics as stated in the published by-laws. If these by-laws are not followed, the Board of Directors, at their discretion, may vote not to extend an annual membership renewal.
